Better Hearing Practices:
Improve Safety, Performance & Profit

48 million Americans report some degree of hearing loss. 60% of people suffering hearing loss are in the work force or educational setting. By the age of 65, one out three people has hearing loss. It's a major public health issue and is now the third most common physical condition after arthritis and heart disease.

At the March Safety Council luncheon, James M. Morris, President & Hearing Specialist, HearInc. will explain how workplace hearing challenges can impact; relationships, risk, salary, personal development, productivity and profit. Other talking points will include:

- The impact that industry and noise have on this health issue
- The challenges of hearing loss in the workplace and at home
- How you can promote hearing awareness to improve safety

Spotlight Company:

All attendees will have a chance to win a door prize provided by our spotlight company.
